I hope you can fill up cars (not gas) with Legionnaires and attend the Area 2 Meeting. A lot of hard work goes into the production of this type of meeting. We wanted to have a one day meeting to save your valuable time.

Hopefully to increase the attendance.

We always say, boy where are the no shows. The proper answer is, I didn't ask to give rides to my fellow Legionnaires. Team work is just as important. Knowledge is the winner. I want all of you to be winners. The new guy(or old-timer) asks the question what do I do? Help Him. There is no question that is dumb.

Please provide the Information below.
