...and Makes a Real Difference

There's no question that the numerous benefits you receive as a member of The American Legion are a great bargain. In fact, they're undoubtedly worth many times the modest cost of your annual renewal dues.

But what's even more impressive — and important — about your membership is to be found in all the ways The American Legion touches the lives of your fellow veterans, their families and communities.

This reflects the honor...pride...and service of our organization and the members who make it strong. Members like you, whose commitment to these values makes a real difference in the life of our country from the national scene to our own home towns.
